

Homework Assignment for class #1
Introduction to Wildlife Rehabilitation

1. Caring for an injured/orphaned animal is one of the things done by a wildlife rehabilitator. Name 2 other activities that are an important part of rehabilitating wildlife.

2. Why is wildlife rehabilitation not an activity for children?

3. Name 3 species of birds that are not federally protected.

4. What agency issues wildlife rehabilitation permits in North Carolina?

5. Complete the following definition of wildlife rehabilitation:

Rescuing, caring for, and arranging for veterinary care of orphaned, sick, displaced or injured wild animals with a goal of _____ in a way that they will _____ in their natural habitats

Answer True or False for each of the following:

6. Wild animals should be treated like pets.

7. It is legal in North Carolina to rehabilitate rabies vector species if you possess a wildlife rehabilitation permit.

8. A state permit is the only permit that is required to rehabilitate migratory birds.

9. Without a federal permit it is illegal to collect bird eggs.

10. Freezing is a humane method of euthanizing an animal.